Christian Wills Guide

4 Easy Steps to a God-Honoring, Money Saving Will

Congratulations! You are on your way to getting your financial house in order. And that is a great feeling, knowing that you have honored God, your family, and the ministries you love, while planning for your future.

Before you visit an estate planning attorney, fill in the blanks below as best you can in each of the four sections.

Doing this basic homework ahead of time will be efficient and less costly for you as you prepare to meet with an attorney. It also helps you think things through at your own pace, so you can have confidence and peace about your decisions. If a question does not apply to you, just leave it blank.

Also, jot down any questions that come to mind as you fill in the blanks and take them with you to your meeting with the attorney. When you are finished, simply print a copy for your attorney and for your records.

Step 4. The People and Ministries We Want to Bless

Not only does a will protect and provide for your family, it also communicates your values to them and your heart for the Lord's work. For many Christians, a gift from their will (called a "bequest") is the largest contribution they will ever make to ministry - impacting people for Christ for generations to come. The most common approaches for ministry bequests are:

- Add "Charity" to your family. Some families treat charitable organizations like one additional child. For example, if a family has three children, they might add a fourth child named "Charity" and divide the assets in their will into four equal parts. Each of their children would receive 25%, and the remaining 25% would be divided among their favorite charitable organizations.
- Percentage of your estate. Other families commit a percentage of their estate to the ministry organizations they love, dividing the remaining percentage among their heirs.
- Set a cap. Others prayerfully decide on a "cap" for their children's inheritance, leaving the rest of their assets to advance the Lord's work here and around the world. This approach is used when the parents want to provide a modest gift to bless their children and eliminate concerns of creating dependence or giving too much too soon.

List the people, churches, and ministry organizations below to whom you wish to make a bequest:

Name of Person or Charitable Organization:

City/State:

Percentage or dollar amount of your estate
you wish to leave to this person or organization:

Description of property you wish to leave (land, home, jewelry, collectibles, etc.)
